

HENRY COUNTY.

Henry county has the distinction of being the only county in the state which, so far as can be learned, has no mounds or other earthworks proper. The only evidences of aboriginal occupation of the county which have come to light, aside from minor artifacts found on the surface, are two burials, located on the Maumee river, near Napoleon.

HENRY COUNTY.

Townships.	Burials.
Napoleon	2
Totals	2

HENRY COUNTY

MAUMEE RIVER