

MIAMI COUNTY.

With two fine streams passing through the county—the Miami and Stillwater rivers — Miami county was well adapted as a place of abode for aboriginal peoples.

The Miami valley is dotted with prehistoric sites, which occur in greatest number about Piqua. In Washington township alone, in which Piqua is situated, 11 enclosures have been recorded. In Spring Creek township, across the river, are several others.

A total of 96 sites have been recorded in the county, consisting of 15 enclosures, 22 mounds, 35 village sites and 24 burials.

MIAMI COUNTY.

Townships.	Mounds.	Enclosures.	Village Sites.	Burials.	Totals.
Newbury	2	8	3
Newton	1	1	2	3
Union	4	1
Washington	8	11	5	1
Concord	2
Monroe	1	3
Spring Creek	4	3	5	8
Staunton	1	5	1
Brown	1	1
Lost Creek	2	2
Elizabeth	1	1
Bethel	4	1
Totals	22	15	35	24	96

